What is a solar power purchase agreement (SPPA)?

A Solar Power Purchase Agreement (SPPA) is a financial arrangement in which a third-party developer owns, operates, and maintains the photovoltaic (PV) system, and a host customer agrees to site the system on its property and purchases the system's electric output from the solar services provider for a predetermined period.

Can a provider sell a photovoltaic system to a customer?

WHEREAS, Provider has offered, at his sole cost and expense, to install, maintain, own, replace, repair, and operate a photovoltaic system at one or more of the Property (ies) and to sell Solar Services (as hereafter defined) produced by the solar photovoltaic system to Customer as provided in and subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

What is a PV installation agreement?

The Installation Agreement is a lump-sum agreement between the project company, as owner of the project, and the installation contractor, the contractor that will be responsible for installing the PV system, providing the balance of plant and commissioning the plant.

What is a solar service provider (SPPA)?

With this business model, the host customer buys the services produced by the PV system rather than the PV system itself. This framework is referred to as the "solar services" model, and the developers who offer SPPAs are known as solar services providers.

What is the scope of work for a solar facility?
