

Sales volume of photovoltaic panels of Longi

How did the PV industry perform in the first half of 2024?

Amidst the continuous transformation and challenges in the PV industry during the first half of 2024, the company achieved a revenue of 38.529 billion yuan. Silicon wafer shipments totaled 44.44 GW (with 21.96 GW sold externally), while solar cell sales reached 2.66 GW externally.

Why is Longi a good choice for China's photovoltaic industry?

With trade disputes (WRO) and other ad-hoc issues having an impact on China's photovoltaic industry, LONGi's advantage in not relying on a single market allows it to perform consistently well and meet growth expectations.

How many photovoltaic modules will China buy in 2024?

Recently, China Huaneng Group, one of the five largest state-owned power generation enterprises in China, announced the details of the second batch of photovoltaic module procurement framework agreement for 2024. Of note, the third batch of bids will purchase 1GW of back contact modules.

How is Longi performing in 2021 & Q1 2022?

LONGi has released its 2021 and Q1 2022 annual report to global shareholders, revealing that the company has maintained stable operations and achieved significant global shipments of products throughout the period. The report put LONGi's operating revenue for 2021 at CNY 80.932 billion, a year-on-year increase of 48.27%.

How many solar cells are sold in Asia?

Silicon wafer shipments totaled 44.44 GW (with 21.96 GW sold externally), while solar cell sales reached 2.66 GW externally. Additionally, module shipments amounted to 31.34 GW, with a remarkable year-on-year increase of over 140% in the Asia-Pacific region.

Why is Longi a leading bifacial module manufacturer in Asia-Pacific?

The significant increase of 140% in sales volume in the Asia-Pacific region not only highlights LONGi's deep foundation in the international market but also lays a solid foundation for its global layout. Based on the high-efficiency HPBC 2.0 cell technology, LONGi has launched the Hi-MO 9 bifacial module product for the utility market.
