What is a narrow wardrobe & how does it work?

The narrow design makes them the ideal option for smaller spaces, adding style and personality to any bedroom in an instant. Inside the wardrobe, you will find space for hanging clothes on one side, with shelves for folded clothes on the other side. There are also two spacious drawers at the bottom for additional storage.

What is the difference between a corner and open wardrobe?

Corner wardrobes make clever use of space that may otherwise be left redundant. They can be combined with another freestanding wardrobe if there is enough room to create a large bedroom storage solution. Open wardrobes:

Why should you choose a mirrored front wardrobe?

The mirrored front will give the illusion of a larger space and help to brighten up your room by reflecting the existing natural light in your room. This is part of the reason that this wardrobe is such a great choice for studio apartments and open-plan spaces--the mirrored front helps to conceal the fact that it's actually a wardrobe!
